ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Charles G. Whiting, literary editor of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, is passing a vacation in Peru and Brattleboro.

W. D. Sargent, of Ludlow, has bought of H. Sheppardson & Co. all the firm's sawed lumber in Okemo mountain, some 200,000 feet.

William R. Jennings, of New York, has just completed a bungalow on Stamford mountain near Bennington, 2,800 feet above the sea.

Lieut. Edward H. Prouty, of Burlington, has been appointed aide de camp on the staff of the commander-in-chief, United States War Veterans.

Brattleboro will build a nurses' home, 70 feet long, 40 feet wide, and three stories high. It will be of brick, granite, and marble and will cost about $55,000.

William J. Fairbanks, the Saxtons river murderer and would-be suicide, has been taken from the Memorial hospital, Brattleboro, to the state prison at Windsor.

While C. L. Derby, of Ludlow, was plowing the other day, his wife picked up from the dirt, thrown out by the plow, a British copper coin of the issue of 1747, just 160 years old.

Carl Russ and Fred Flinn, of St.
Johnsbury, hired a livery team the other day and the day following the rig was found in the street badly demolished.
Both young men were arrested in East Burke on charges of intoxication and paid fines of $10.57 each beside settling for the damage done to the rig.

James Pollard, aged 72 years, a veteran of the Civil War, who died at his home in Ludlow Friday, was born in Plymouth. Mr. Pollard served with the Ninety-third New York Volunteers in the war, and also in Company G, 17th Regiment. He was shot in the head at Spatoyavlania and was discharged on account of his wounds.

J. A. Giddings of Andover, discovered an adulter three feet five inches long while working in his potato field. The reptile stood on its tail and showed fight before Mr. Giddings dispatched it with a hoe.
James Reed, while surveying for the Fair Haven water works at human pond, killed one of the largest rattlesnakes ever found in that section. It was over four feet long, eight inches in circumference and had ten hitches.

Manchester is enjoying the best summer season in its history. Seven hundred cottages rent from $35 to $1,800 according to the size and location.
Sixteen families from New York, Brooklyn, and other cities have handsome homes there and two more will be added by next season. The smaller hotels and boarding houses are already taxed to their capacity while the Equinox house is only half occupied. In the summer of its history and the outlook for August is very bright. The number of automobiles owned by cottagers and hotel guests who are there for the greater part of the season is fourteen and fifteen families have from one to nine horses.
Manchester's chief attractions are pure water and air, fine scenery, and good roads. The chief recreations are golf, tennis, fishing, baseball, and riding.

Stabbing at Shelburne.
An unknown man who said he was from Winoski was stabbed in the left side over the heart by another Winoski man at Shelburne late Saturday night.
The man was taken to the house of Dr.
Stoddard where his wound which was not serious was dressed by Dr. Harry Lawrence, who has Dr. Stoddard's practice while the latter is away. A crowd of at least 50 men from out of town had been patronizing the hotel which contains the only licensed bar in Chittenden county and it was while they were waiting for the 10 p. m. train to carry them to Burlington that the altercation took place which resulted in the stabbing. To the physician the injured man and several companions with him said that the stabbing was the outcome of a quarrel which the two men had, which finally came to blows and ended in one drawing a large pocket knife on the other. It was nearly midnight when the party left the doctor's office and he refused to get the names of any one. They simply said they were from Winoski.
The train was more than two hours late and as the hotel closed shortly before 10 o'clock the crowd found time to amuse itself in various ways. There was much hilarity and a few open quarrels none, however, resulting seriously. Shelburne has no police protection whatever, and the village is at the mercy of toughs and rowdies who may chance to come to town. In the above case no arrests have been made and in the date has not been made to find out who did the stabbing.

EARLY ARITHMETICS.
Struggles of the Pilgrim Children With One of the "R's."

Next to penmanship the colonial school and schoolmaster took firm stand on "ciphering." "The Bible and figures is what I want my boys to know," said the old farmer. I have examined with care a Wingate's Arithmetic which was used for over a century in the Winslow family in Massachusetts. The first edition was printed in 1620. It is certainly bewildering to a modern reader. "Pythagoras-His Table" is of course our multiplication table. Then come "The Rule of Three," "The Double Golden Rule," "The Rule of Fellowship," "The Rule of False," etc., ending with "a collection of pleasant and polite questions to exercise all the parts of vulgar arithmetick."

Wingate's Arithmetic and Hodder's Arithmetic were succeeded by Pike's Arithmetic. This had 363 rules to be committed to memory, and not an explanation was given of one of them.
It is the most barren schoolbook I have ever read. These printed arith-metics were not in common use. Nearly all teachers had manuscript "sum books," from which the scholars copied page after page of "sums," too often without any explanation of the process, though there were also many and long rules, which helped the penmanship if they did not the mathematics.

TO CURE ANY DISEASE.

The Cause Must be Removed, Same Way With Dandruff.

Kill the germ that causes dandruff, failing hair and baldness, you will have no more dandruff, and your hair must grow luxuriantly. Newbro's Herpicide not only contains the dandruff germ destroyer, but it is also a most delicious hair dressing for regular toilet use.
No other hair preparation is on this scientific basis of destroying the dandruff germs. It stops all irritation, keeps the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome. Remember that something claimed to be "just as good," will not do the work of revenue Herpicide. Sold by leading

ENGLISH ETCHINGS.

The nobility of the United Kingdom numbers 750.

If horse racing were abolished it is estimated that over 20,000 people would be thrown out of employment in England.

Thomas King was fined in a London police court the other day for taking his baby to a pawnshop and trying to pawn it for 50 cents.

The corporation of Burgess Hill, Sussex, England, grows peppermint municipally and so profitably as to have made a marked reduction in the town taxes.

The two main reasons why steamship lines are deserting Liverpool are that London is so much nearer to Southampton and that this port is much deeper.

At the beginning of the new year there were in London thirty-two west end and thirty-five suburban theaters and sixty-four west end and suburban music halls—all within eight of St.
Paul's.

Finding that stone breaking and oak-um picking were not profitable enough, the authorities of Hordham, England, decided to put able-bodied paupers to work at grinding corn in the mill. Next day not a pauper was left in the almhouse.

Enormous Flow of Words.

A committee clerk at the house of the capitol estimates that as a result of the deliberations of the recent short session of congress the literature of the year has been enriched by the addition of 8,000,000 words. This stupendous verbal output was printed in the Congressional Record and consisted of speeches, reports of various kinds and the presidential messages, of which, for one reason and another, there were an unusual number and variety. The session consumed only seventy-one legislative days, the average duration of which was a little less than five hours each. Thus the verbal output per hour of the nation's statesmen the past winter was 24,000, a record, it is believed, unsurpassed in the modern history of parliaments.

Impartial.
An English clergyman, recently settled in a small town in Perthshire, met a farmer's boy while visiting the members of his congregation. In the course of conversation the boy said his parents had an aunt staying with them.

The parson, not having much acquaintance with the Scottish language and not quite comprehending what the boy said, asked:
"Then, do I understand that your aunt is on your father's side or on your mother's?"
To which the young agriculturist replied:
"Weel, whiles the aue an whiles the ther, excep' when feyther leathers them baith."—Dundee Advertiser.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed it is swollen and the circulation of mucus is stopped and the hearing is lost. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for
